REQUEST FOR REFUND OF REQUEST FOR CONTINUED EXAMINATION (RCE)

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

Applicant filed a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) and paid the fee in the amount of $905, including RCE filing fee ($395) and three-month time extension fee ($510), on 04/25/2005.

In response to a final Office Action dated 10/26/2004, Applicant filed an Amendment on 12/29/2004 via facsimile to number (703) 872-9306.

Not receiving any office actions on the amendment filed on 12/29/2004, Applicant contacted the examiner for status of the application on 03/29/2005. According to the examiner, Mr. VU, TUAN A., the amendment has been listed on PALM but not forward for him to review at the time and there is nothing he can do about it. So the examiner direct us to contact the Tech support Mr. Darryl Forte.

After left two messages on 03/29/2005 and 03/30/2005 and not heard from Mr. Darryl Forte, we contacted the examiner's supervisor Ms. Kakali Chaki on April 06, 2005 and were told the response filed on 12/29/2004 has been docketed into the computer, but not forward to the examiner for reviewing. However, Ms. Kakali Chaki has indicated that she will try to solve this problem and forward the amendment to the examiner to review as soon as possible.

On 04/20/2005 (4 days prior to the drop date), Applicant contacted the examiner again and were told that the amendment is still not available for examiner to review. Until 04/21/2005, the examiner has indicated that he has just reviewed the case and sent out an Advisory Action. Therefore, Applicant filed a RCE to avoid abandonment.

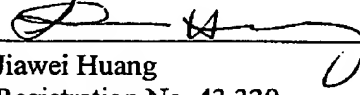

Applicant has timely submitted a response to the final Office Action and has not received any Office Action on the response. As the delay is caused by the patent office, Applicant believes and requests that the three-month time extension fee ($510) should be refunded. In addition, if our response of 12/29/2005 has placed the application in condition for allowance (thus, the RCE would not be necessary), the RCE filing fee should be returned.

Please make the refund to Account No. 50-0710 (Order No. JCLA6008).

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: 4/25/2005
